Summery: A poem based on a really stranged dream. I wrote it after Zelda 64 came out. Essenially a dream abut the land of Hyrule, and a person' desire to return.

Return to Hyrule
>
I stand alone in a field of green,
>As far as the eyes can see.
A breeze comes, it swirls around,

>And whispers its secrets to me.
>It spoke of forests and shadows,
Of fire, water, and light.
>It spoke of a guardian spirit,
Standing watch into the night.

>
It sang of a fair young princess,
>Her guardian old and wise,
And a man whose heart was evil,
>For evil has no disguise.
>It told of a brave young boy,
A child so pure and kind,
>Who dared to challenge the evil,
Armed with his courage and mind.

>
It whispered of lakes and mountains,
>Of meadows and deserts and all,
Of busy towns, and graveyards,

>And Sages to watch over them all.
>And then I awake, it was all just a dream,
But the dream, it seemed so true!
>Will I dream again, of the field of green,
In a land they call Hyrule?
